Handoff: New Westminster Hyacks quarterback Jeremy Davis, centre, hands the ball off to Brent Fletcher in the high school varsity team's scrimmage against Centennial last Friday. New West tied Centennial 6-6 and lost 12-0 to Terry Fox in the three-team, pre-season exhibition contests.

New West players make Selects field lax team

Local boys dominated the under-15 elite roster on the Burnaby Mountain Selects field lacrosse team.

New Westminster players Steve Ferdinandi, Connor Goodwin, Justin Goodwin, Anthony Malcom, Jaan Potiaev, Jonathan Rachfall and Reese Robinson make up a core group of players in this year's elite summer program, which prepares young student-athletes for NCAA or collegiate-level field lacrosse.

Tyler Buchan and James Spagnuolo of Burnaby join the Royal City contingent.

St. Thomas More Collegiate midfielder James Delaney was the only district selection to the elite Burnaby Mountain Selects u-18 team.

In addition to a 10-week practice schedule, consisting of seven hours of study hall each week, teams will make two major trips to top college recruiting tournaments in Denver and New York.

The Selects program is run by Simon Fraser University field lacrosse club coaches Brent Hoskins and Jeff Cathrea.

Summer Games hoop team

Burnaby-New Westminster players make up the core of the zone 4 girls' under-14 basketball team for the upcoming B.C. Summer Games.

Allison Patterson, Kamila Wojciechowski, Kelsi Borojevich, Nicole Eidsvick and Pavneet Brar of Burnaby will join New Westminster teammates Ariana Sider, Jaylen Canton and Shonte Devernichuk on the zone hoop squad.

Wheelchair rugby tourney

Bonsor recreation centre will be the place to be for exciting wheelchair rugby action June 27 to 29.

Burnaby will play host to the 2008 Canada Cup international tournament, which will be the final major competition for countries competing at the Paralympic Games in Beijing this August.

Pool games run all day Friday and Saturday. Final games are Sunday, with the Canada Cup final scheduled for 3 p.m.
