The Lady Bruins rugby team played at Thomas Haney on Saturday against a team they had never defeated – the Meralomas from Vancouver. The first ten minutes of the game was all Bruins as they pinned the Lomas in their end till Dawne Granholm scored the opening try. Then for the remainder of the half the Lomas took over scoring four tries on long runs caused by missed tackles. They converted twice and the half ended with the score 24-5 for the visitors. The second half started off with a bang. A German exchange student by the name of Kataa Schroder scored a try which sparked the Bruins back to life. Within 15 minutes she scored two more tries to make the game close. Then Samantha Dyke scored the go ahead try with 10 minutes to go. Soon after Katie Zadorosny went for a great run and set up a try for Samantha Langley. The scoring for the Bruins ended on Granholm's second try of the match. Legassic tames Wolf Pack with four points

The Ridge Meadows Flames junior B team lost its home game on Friday night against Richmond Sockeyes but got another taste of victory on the road beating the Squamish Wolf Pack 5-3 with CJ Legassic posting three goals and an assist.

On Friday night the Flames had trouble finding the back of the net despite 36 shots on goal. Richmond was already leading the game 3-0 when Shane Harle scored on the power play halfway through the second period.

Saturday's game was a back-and-forth game between the Flames and the Squamish Wolf Pack. Squamish opened the scoring halfway through the first period, which was answered by the Flames within second - CJ Legassic evened the game to 1-1.

In the second period, the Wolf Pack managed a power-play goal and was once again in the lead 2-1. But that was short lived as Legassic got the second of three goals he would score in the game and the game was tied 2-2.

The Wolf Pack shot back a few minutes later with another power-play goal and took a 3-2 lead. But Harle with help from Brett Allen found the Wolf Pack's net and the period ended 3-3.

In the third period, the Flames' Reily Moffat scored and the Flames took the lead again with a 4-3 score. The Squamish coach pulled their goalie in the last minute of the game, but Legassic seized the opportunity and scored an empty-netter, his third goal of the game.

► The Flames face the Squamish Wolf Pack again on Friday night in a home game at Planet Ice. On Saturday they travel to Abbotsford to face the Pilots at the MSA Arena. Both games are at 7:30 p.m.
