

THE SPOKESMAN-REVIEW

Elite lacrosse program

Published: June 22, 2010

Four Gonzaga Prep athletes are playing for Burnaby Mountain Selects this summer, an elite lacrosse development program headed up by Simon Fraser University co-head coaches Jeff Cathrea and Brent Hoskins.

The players are Geoff Barnes, an attacker, Logan Rogers, a defenseman, Micah Duncan, a midfielder, and Keenan Sullivan, a defenseman. They will all be seniors next year.

The Burnaby Mountain Selects program is in its seventh season. It's a 10-week program that includes participation in one of the top college recruiting tournaments.
