Blue Knights win local atom rivalry

The Atom Gold Knights were beat 24-8 by their blue counterparts this weekend.

In Knights action this past weekend, the two Meadows Ridge atom teams staged a playoff preview, which saw the Blue Knights post a 24-8 victory over their inter-club rival Gold Knights.

The Blue Knights had three touchdowns from Kade Cote, and Kicker Braydon Hamilton had a perfect day as he successfully kicked all three conversions.

The Blue Knights defence was led by interceptions from both Blake Alford and Jay Sachar, who each made several key tackles.

The Gold Knights got on the scoreboard on the game's final play, with Michael Howarth making his way into the end zone.

The Gold Knights had strong defensive efforts from Nickolas Leinhaas, Cody Hogarth, Mason Wakabayashi, Darius Joseph and Nicholas Stroud.

The next battle between these teams will take place on Nov. 13 at SRT when they face each other in the first round of the VCFL Atom playoffs.

The Blue Atom team's next game is against Mission Atom Saturday at SRT at 11 a.m.

Gold Atom will face North Langley Atom at Meadow Ridge Knight Tyler Morrisette flies past Richmond Raider Ryan Reid during Saturday's midget-level game.

McLeod Athletic Park Saturday at 11 a.m.

The Pee wee Knights were defeated Saturday by the Abbotsford Falcons 20-0. The loss means the Knights have secured a home play-off game for the first round of the playoffs.

It was a familiar tale for the Junior Bantam Knights Saturday, as they could not maintain a strong start and eventually were defeated, this time by the Abbotsford Junior Bantam team.

The Knights held the high-powered Abbotsford offence without a score in the first quarter and only trailed 14-6 at the half, but they faded later and fell 40-14 to the Falcons.

Brian Dongalen had both the Knights' touchdowns. The Knights finish their season Saturday against Mission at SRT at 2:30 p.m.

The Bantam Knights were in the valley of the corn last weekend, where they were outlasted by the Chilliwack Giants 28-20.

The Bantam Knights will finish in second place and will host the North Langley Bears in first round playoff action.

The Midget Knights remain in the hunt for a playoff spot after a 14-0 win over the Richmond Raiders Saturday.

Quarterback Cole Warren threw a 35-yard touchdown pass to Jaimal Gill, who made a great catch despite a defensive pass interference penalty call on the play.

The Knights had a solid running attack with Tyler Morrisette, Martin Duckhorn and Ross Allam leading the way.

Morrisette scored the other Knights touchdown on a 30-yard run.

The defence was anchored by Nick Stoyeff and Garrett Thon from the safety position. Thon had a key interception to end a Richmond drive.

The Midget Knights evened their record to four wins against four losses and will play Langley this Saturday at 6 p.m. at SRT.
