Field Hyacks win second high school district title

The New Westminster Secondary School girl's field hockey team won the Burnaby/New Westminster girl's field hockey banner for a second straight year.

Emily Skelton scored the game's only goal in New Westminster's 1-0 win over Burnaby South in the final last month.

New Westminster then moved on to the AAA zone qualifying match, losing 5-1 to West Vancouver Secondary.

Kelsey Lonergan scored the only goal for New Westminster.

Brandon Darby, a NWSS grad, has coached the team for four years. The former spring league club coach has seen his school team bolstered by club players from the Burnaby youth team.

"We used to not have a full team, and now we've won it twice," said Darby. "We had eight starters injured this season, but we still managed to win. Next year is our year."

The New Westminster team is lead by junior Ellen Colbourne and Sunny Virk, one of only two seniors graduating from the team this year.

The other senior is goalie Katrina Hilliard.

Seven on elite field team

New Westminster field lacrosse put seven players on this season's Burnaby Mountain Selects teams.

New Westminster products Matthew Buchanan, Sean Fitzsimmons, Hayden Goss, Jordan McKenzie, Connor Robinson, Dylan Sharpe and Mathew Sweeney joined Burnaby's Justin Appels, Tyler Buchan, Dawson Campbell, Jordan Gabriele, Lucas Greene, Tyler Kirkby, Nicolas Petrollini, Jamie Spagnuolo, Garrett Wills, Aidan Yonge and Keir Yonge in the elite high-performance development program.

Burnaby Mountain will field six traveling teams, ranging in age from under-12 to high school seniors.

In all, more than 120 student athletes from 25 different communities across British Columbia and Washington State will represent the Selects at top tournaments in California, Maryland, Nevada, North Carolina and at exhibition matches in Portland, Oregon and Tacoma, Washington.

working, but we are having trouble with the taller teams," said Lock. "But, it's a tossup in the Lower Mainlands. I'm very concerned. All the Vancouver teams are very even and very good."

League playdowns for both the boys and girls began this Friday (after Record deadlines). The first-round winner then takes on the second-place school on Monday with the winner of that one facing North in the final Wednesday, Nov. 10.

"Yes, that's the goal. But as a coach speaking, the goal is the next 90 minutes," Koch said.

But pressed further on the point, Koch added: "You want to win everything. We want to win everything there is and it's why I have a lot of respect for these guys. They want to win everything when they step on the field."
