Local field lacrosse trio named to select teams

A trio of field lacrosse players from South Delta have been selected to play for the Burnaby Mountain Selects (BMS) Elite Touring Teams.

Entering the programs eighth season; the Burnaby Mountain Selects are widely recognized as one of Canada's top field lacrosse development programs, combining excellence on the field with academic achievement. The program is overseen by Jeff Cathrea and Brent Hoskins, co-head coaches at Simon Fraser University.

The local contingent includes: Sam Clare (Vancouver College) - Senior, Midfield; Scott McQuarrie (South Delta Secondary) - Junior, Defense and Tyler Wickett (Delta Secondary) - Senior, Attack.

Burnaby Mountain's high school aged teams (Freshmen, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior) practice on-field twice a week and attend three hours of weekly study hall. In addition to a three-month practice schedule, each team will compete in two top college recruiting events throughout North America. Each tournament will feature elite high-school aged competition from across the continent with to the opportunity to play in front of NCAA and MCLA College recruiters.

This week, the Sophomore and Senior Selects are in Baltimore, Maryland to compete in days one and two of the Ultimate Performance Lacrosse (UP Lax) Fall Shootout. In addition to two days of competition, the Selects will tour the campus of Georgetown University, the oldest Catholic University in the United States and home of the Hoyas men's lacrosse team (NCAA Div. I).

The following weekend, November 18-22, the Freshmen and Junior teams will return to Baltimore, MD to compete in days three and four of the UP Lax Fall Shootout.
