Pitt Meadows Secondary's Riley Glemnitz was part of the Ultimate Performance Lacrosse Fall Shootout I and II in Maryland.

Glemnitz is the only local lacrosse player on the Burnaby Mountain Selects (BMS) Sophomore team and his team was one of more than 100 teams across two divisions that competed in Maryland in mid-November.

The sophomore Selects competed in the junior varsity (JV) division, posting a 2-4 record, with three losses coming by two goals or less.

It wasn't all work however, as the Selects teams had the opportunity to travel to Washington D.C., to visit Georgetown University and were able to meet with Hoyas men's lacrosse assistant coach Matt Rienzo about the college recruitment process.

They then spent the rest of the day in Washington, seeing the sites. They also got to spend a day in New York and had the opportunity to tour the new Yankee Stadium.
