Former Semiahmoo Minor Hockey alum – and former Surrey Eagles forward – Spencer Bennett has been on a tear since being acquired earlier this month by the Vancouver Giants. Sunday against the Seattle Thunderbirds, Bennett, 20, scored a pair of goals for the Giants to lead them to a 4-3 victory. The win also vaulted the Giants back into first place in the Western Hockey League's B.C. Division.

Bennett, a Calgary Flames draft pick who played in Surrey during the 2008/09 season before jumping to the WHL ranks, has 14 points in nine games in Vancouver, the team he joined when the Giants shipped captain Craig Cunningham to the Portland Winter Hawks. In total, Bennett has 21 goals and 35 points in 46 games this season.

Selects impress

A pair of South Surrey lacrosse talents were part of the Burnaby Mountain Selects' sophomore elite team that posted a near-perfect record at the recent 2011 Adrenaline Challenge, which was held earlier this month in San Diego.

Earl Marriott Secondary's Spencer Bromley and Semiahmoo Secondary student Jalen Sekhon were both on the Burnaby squad that went 4-1 in San Diego; the team's only loss came at the hands of FCA SoCal Blue, who were the eventual tournament champions.

came against Washington's South Sound Starz, as well as a team from Idaho, and two California club's – the Fog City Jays and Golden Gate U16 Gold. Despite losing just once, the team was eliminated from the top-eight playoff bracket on a tiebreaker.

Set for Emerald

Coming off a fourth-place finish at last week's Surrey RCMP Basketball Classic, the White Rock Christian Academy Warriors' senior boys – who'd won the RCMP tournament 10 of 12 times before this year – set their sights this week on another tournament.

December, Steven played the majority of the games," said co-head coach Ryan Weber.

"He held the league scoring leaders, Caribou Cougars, to just two goals in two games."

Perfect record

The Southridge Storm senior boys basketball team kept its perfect league record alive Tuesday after a 78-38 victory over Surrey Christian.

The Storm are now 3-0 in league play, and 10-5 overall; they are ranked third in the latest B.C. double-A rankings.

Southridge now prepares for a battle of unbeaten teams next week – they take on Delview, the only other squad without a loss, Jan. 26.

Against Surrey Christian, Southridge played the game without key scorer Jacob Andreou, who sat out due to a lower-body injury. Shahbaj Dhillon led the way with 28 points, 15 rebounds and five blocked shots, while Jonathan Yu had eight points, six boards and seven steals. Royce Holmes chipped in with 11 points.

Eagles return home

After trips to Vancouver Island on consecutive weekends, the Surrey Eagles finally return home Sunday, when they host the Langley Chiefs.

On Friday, Surrey travels to Victoria to face the Grizzlies before playing the Alberni Valley Bulldogs Saturday night.

After Sunday's home game, which starts at 4 p.m. at South Surrey Arena, the Eagles will also hold another installment of its Scotiabank Skate with the Eagles program, where young fans can hit the ice with their favourite Eagles players. Vouchers for the free skate can be picked up at South Surrey Scotiabank locations.
