7-on-7 Hyacks sixth at Big Kahuna tourney

The New Westminster Hyacks improved with the weather at last weekend's Big Kahuna 7-on-7 Passing Challenge tournament at Mercer Stadium.

After a wet and dismal showing on the opening Saturday, the Hyacks climbed into sixth place in the final placements on the final day of the weekend event.

"Today we were better. But this really is prep," said Hyacks head coach Farhan Lalji.

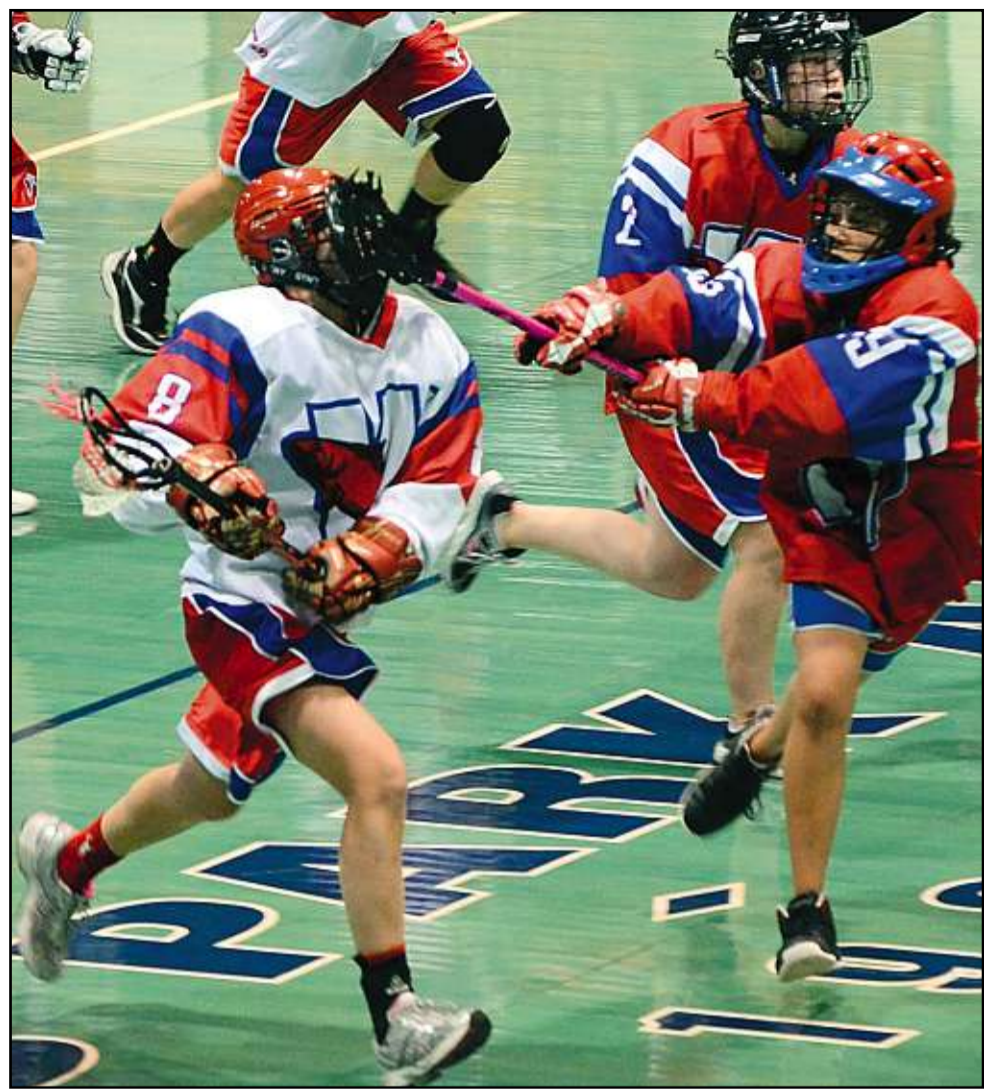

New Westminster's B team upset Seaquam, and the Hyacks knocked off Timberline and Kelowna on a late scoring drive to nail down sixth place.

The Hyacks also put together a good first-half showing against eventual fourth-place W.J. Mouat.

Lalji praised the play of Jonathan Lopez and Connor Brady on the final day.

"Our young kids got invaluable experience and they played their tails off. I was happy for them," Lalji said.

Tweedsmuir won the Big Kahuna tourney 39-23 over Nooksack Valley.

Four to tour with Selects

Four New Westminster field lacrosse players will be playing this summer on Burnaby Mountain Selects touring teams.

Junior defender Will Bascombe was named along with under-15 goalie Dylan Sharpe and u-13's Matthew Buchanan and Fynn Miller.

seven as a starter. He finished third on the team in goals and was named to the conference all-rookie team.

In his second year, Moore finished first on the team with 31 goals, 16 assists and 47 total points.

With the help of Moore, RMU posted its third consecutive winning season in just the seventh year of the school's field lacrosse program. The Patriots led the nation in scoring offence for a second straight year.

This season, Robert Morris made its first-ever post-season appearance before eventually falling 12-11 in double overtime to second-seeded Quinnipiac in the conference semifinal.

The Patriots claimed another first this season, beating its first nationally ranked opponent, Bucknell, earlier in the year.

Juniors: Victoria comes to town Sunday

Delta outshot the home 'Bellies 5-0 in the opening minutes of the game, but New Westminster took a 3-1 lead on three quick goals, including Leif Mydske's first of two markers.

The period ended 5-4 in New West's favour.

In the middle frame, Delta made the Salmonbellies pay for three of four penalties whistled against them, but still trailed at the end of the period, 9-7.

New West keeper Frankie Scigliano stopped 39 shots in goal. The Salmonbellies outshot Delta 61-46 in the otherwise wide-open affair, including 23 in the final frame.

But it is the up-and-down nature of the current Salmonbellies' game and the 459 minutes in penalties accumulated to date that has some onlookers questioning the team's playoff readiness.

But Salt said all that is being addressed.

"We want to play a 60-minute game. We're getting to the 50 mark, but mostly we're playing 40," Salt said. "We're just working hard in practice, then we'll play like that. I think it will really show soon."

As for garnering a second-worst 135 team penalties to date, Salt maintained the club "is trying to get past that."

"It was good to come out hard in the third period," he added.

The junior 'Bellies face the second-place Victoria Shamrocks this Sunday at Queen's Park Arena. Game time is 5 p.m. New West will also host the Burnaby Lakers at home on Tuesday at 8 p.m.
