Richmond defender earns MVP award for touring U15 Select team in Colorado

Richmond field lacrosse player Dylan Miller turned some heads with his play south of the border for the Burnaby Mountain Selects U15 Elite team.

The McNair second-year student was one of four Richmond players on the Burnaby Mountain team that participated at the recent University of Denver Team Camp. He was joined by Nick Jensen, Mark Sahota and Cooper Yates. The Selects finished the tournament with a 5-2 record, while Miller and Jensen were also selected to play in the U15 all-star game. Miller went on to be named the defensive MVP of the tournament.

Over 30 college coaches attended the event, including coaches from NCAA Division I powerhouses Denver, Hofstra, Towson and UMass. The Burnaby Mountain team also attended a two-hour clinic, put on by the coaches, prior to the tournament.

Richmond is also well-represented on two other Burnaby Mountain teams for summer tours.

The Senior Elite team features Jonathan Bailey, Matt Sahota and Parker Sahota, while the Junior squad's line-up includes Brad Hoffman, Josh Kelly and Jonah Sahota.

The Juniors are currently in New York for the Syracuse University Summer Shootout.

The Selects Senior Elite team will conclude the 2011 summer season with a trip to Baltimore, Maryland, July 19-26 to compete in the nationally renowned Champ Camp. Teams are selected to compete at Champ Camp by invitation only with an emphasis on assembling the top high school aged club teams in North America. Burnaby Mountain is the only program to be selected from Western Canada in the tournament's 22 year history with 2011 being the second straight year that the Selects will be in attendance.

Burnaby Mountain Selects program is designed to follow the same collegiate template as the Simon Fraser University men's lacrosse program, with the objective of best preparing young student-athletes to play at the collegiate level.

Richmond coach offering popular summer soccer camps for 15th year at Hugh Boyd

Mike Quinn is once again hosting his popular youth soccer summer camps in Richmond.

The successful local coach played professionally in England and has his "C" License Coaching Certificate — having guided a number of strong teams in Richmond over the last three decades.

This year's camp is being offered through the City of Richmond and is endorsed by the Richmond Youth and Richmond

Girls Soccer Associations.

Quinn promises participants an atmosphere of fun and sportsmanship. The instructors will encourage participants in "soccer talk," discussing the rules of the game, field layouts and correct soccer terms.

The sessions, which will take place at Hugh Boyd, have been divided into three age groupings — 4-6, 7-8 and 11-12. The camps start the week of July 11 and continue through to the week of Aug.

22.

The cost is $66 for each camp and includes a t-shirt.

Registration can be done through www.richmond.ca, by calling 604-276-4300 or at the West Richmond Community Centre.
