Ladner's Chalane Morrison playing for the Burnaby Mountain Selects Girls Elite Team in Seattle.

Inaugural Girls Selects team features four Ladner players

Delta Lacrosse is well-represented on the inaugural Burnaby Mountain Selects Girls High School Elite team which launched its fall season by splitting a pair of games south of the border.

Coached by former NCAA women's lacrosse coaches Chris Fox and Stephanie Burlton, Burnaby Mountain was part of an exhibition series hosted by Lakeside High School, near Seattle. The Selects posted a 1-1 record, winning their first game versus Vand'al Red, before falling 10-8 to Puget Sound Select, a team consisting of the top female high school athletes in the Seattle area.

The Burnaby Mountain

roster features four locals — Priscilla Lawson-Pires, Erika Mackenzie, Chalane Morrison and Savannah Phillips. All are currently in their Grade 11 year at Delta secondary school.

The girls will be back in action January 14-15 at the Sand Storm Lacrosse Festival in Palm Springs. The well-known recruiting tournament will take place at the Empire Polo Club and feature 80 teams across four divisions. While in California, the Selects will also tour the University of Southern California (NCAA Div. I), Occidental College (NCAA Div. III) and Whittier College (NCAA Div. III), during an overnight stay in Los Angeles.

Ice Hawks slip past Devils

Spencer Traher's unassisted shorthanded goal in overtime lifted the Delta Ice Hawks to a 3-2 win over the North Delta Devils on Tuesday night.

Sam Vikich and Taylor Kislanko scored just 26 seconds apart in the opening period to give the Ice Hawks a 2-0 lead. They wouldn't find the net again until Traher's heroics while his team was killing a penalty for too many men.

Delta improved to 10-2-1-1 with the win, good enough for a first place tie with the still unbeaten Richmond Sockeyes (11-0-0-0). The two rivals meet Sunday (6:15 p.m.) at Minoru Arena.
